

From the New York Tribune.

COONY CLAY.

THE HUNGRY COON OF 1844.

The following is the most popular song ever written in the English language, and is sung regularly by multitudes at all the Democratic Clubs and Mass meetings throughout America. The boys in the street and the women at home are constantly singing it also. The tyrant, James Second of England, was driven out of his dominions by a song; and this popular ballad is doing pretty much the same thing for Henry Clay and his fellow tyrants, the lordly manufacturers, who impose upon the poor; and have been the direct means of making the necessities of life cost the working-man double what they ought, in order that Clay and his crew may wallow in luxury and ease at the expense of the poor man.

The Poor Lighterman's Song.

Ans—Lucy Neal.

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
The rich man is your god—
You raise the Manufacturer,
But doom the poor to plod.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay,
Oh, coony, coony Clay,
You never will be President,
I hear the people say!

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
You'd starve the working man,
And press his children to the earth,
With tyrant's iron hand.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
Your Tariff's mighty high;
You make the poor man dearly pay
For clothes to keep him dry.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
You tax our salt and bread,
You double-tax our garments too,
And the blankets that we spread.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
You're driven the very dear;
You've heaped our pleasures all away,
And none come back to cheer.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
What care you for the poor?
What care you though the hungry wolf
Is entering at his door?
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
You're crushing of the poor—
Their curse will fall on your old head
Before November's o'er.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
You're linked with wolfish bands;
Ay, bands of thieves who plot the way,
To steal the public lands.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
You tax our salt and bread,
Two hundred millions all to pay
The bankrupt States instead.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
Your Bank ain't worth a pin:
You issue promises to pay,
But never call them in.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
Your promises are sham;
"Two dollars and roast beef per day,"
We've found it all a scam!
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Oh, coony, coony Clay,
We'll do without you sure;
We will not make you President
To cheat us any more.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Yes, coony, coony Clay,
We'll do without you sure;
For POLK and DALLAS are the boys
Your tyranny to cure.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

Then pull away, my boys,
Pull on the labring oar,
For POLK will give us better times
To smile upon the poor.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay.

And pull away, my boys!
For Texas, Oregon;
Pull strong! pull altogether, boys,
And Victory is won.
Chorus.—Oh, coony, coony Clay,
Oh, coony, coony Clay:
You never will be President,
So all the people say!

Dr. Crusty and Mrs. Stimps.—"Have you ever remarked, Dr. Crusty," quoth Mrs. Stimps, lately, "that my children have different ways from most people's?"

"Frequently," retorted the Doctor.
"Entirely different," continued Mrs. Stimps.
"Entirely different," echoed the Doctor.
"Well, how do you account for it, Doctor?" asked Mrs. Stimps, inquiringly.

"Because," rejoined the Doctor, "you have humored them so much that they have ways of their own. I noticed in particular when little Benny threw that apple core right in your face, and told you he'd do it again if he wanted to."

Mrs. Stimps, says Pic, has not alluded to her children since.

Wealth.—The gilt-edged card of free admission to all circles.
Love.—An affection of the heart, usually terminating with typhus fever.
Dandy.—An ape of folly.
Woman's sphere.—To mind her own business.

Im.—Second edition of the word humped. Odd Fellows.—One that does as he would be done by.
Safety valve.—The mouth of an infuriated ignoramus, by which the steam goes off without doing harm.

A Classical Distinction.—"Mr. Chairman," said a juvenile member of a Legislature in one of the Western States, "Mr. Chairman, I now move that the house adjourn indefinitely."
"Mr. Chairman," said a more experienced member, "I don't know what he means by indefinitely. Why does he not couch his motion in language to be understood? Why does he not use the good old English phrase of 'sin die'?"

PROSPECTUS OF THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL.

DAVID FULTON, Editor.

Our Country, Liberty, and God.

ALFRED L. PRICE, Printer.

TERMS.—$2 50 if paid in advance; $3 00 at the end of three months; $3 50 at the expiration of the year.—No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publishers.

Having been induced, at the solicitation of some of the members of the Democratic party, to take charge of the Republican Press in this place, we will hereafter, on every Friday morning, issue a Democratic paper, under the above title, at the office of the late "Wilmington Messenger," in the Town of Wilmington.

As we have given a brief outline of the principles the "Journal" will advocate in our first number, we think it unnecessary again to reiterate the political doctrines it will be our constant and earnest endeavor to inculcate. On the present occasion, therefore, we will merely state, that the "Journal" will be the uncompromising opponent of each and every "link" in the whole of the "great chain" of Whig measures—a United States Bank—a Protective Tariff—the Bankrupt Act—Internal Improvements by the General Government, &c., &c.—While on the other hand it will, so far as our humble abilities will enable us, be the firm friend and supporter of the Constitution as it was left us by our fathers; and of a strict construction of that Constitution, thereby ensuring the rights of the several States which compose the Confederacy. But we set out with the idea of not going into details. It would be a needless tax upon the reader's time. Suffice it to say, that the "Journal" will be a DEMOCRATIC PAPER, and will always advocate Democratic men and Democratic measures.

Although the "Journal" will be a political paper, yet, in order that it may also be agreeable to the general reader, its columns will always be open to such items of intelligence as will be interesting to the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, &c. Agriculture, Trade, the state of the Markets, &c., together with a slight glance at polite literature occasionally, will receive our attention. We hope we will not be considered too "personal in our remarks" when we offer a few suggestions to our friends touching the necessity there exists for keeping on foot a Democratic Press in the Town of Wilmington.

In the first place, Wilmington is a place of the greatest commercial importance of any in the State: it is situated in a Democratic District: there is a great deal of intercourse carried on by the citizens of the lower portion of the State with this place, and consequently a Press here would be calculated to do as much good, in diffusing information, as perhaps at any other point in the State. Again, there are, we believe, three Federal to every one Democratic paper in the State, and this we feel confident, is the reason why North Carolina placed a Whig in her gubernatorial Chair at our recent election: for we feel assured that it only requires a fair comparison to be instituted between the policy of the Federal and Democratic parties to ensure for the latter the most triumphant success. Well now, it is impossible for a Press to be kept up unless our friends will patronize it by subscribing themselves and inducing others to "go and do likewise." For, gentle reader, we suppose you are aware, and if you are not, we will tell you, that Printers and Editors are so far like other mortals that it requires something more than air to feed and kind wishes to clothe them. Therefore, we hope that every Democrat into whose hands this Prospectus may fall, will do all he can to insure the success of the "Journal" and the cause of Democracy.

WILMINGTON, N. C., September 21st, 1844.

Subscriber's names. Residence. No. copies.

NOTE.—It being out of our power to send a copy of our Prospectus to every person who might doubtless be disposed to exert himself to procure subscribers to the "JOURNAL," we have printed the Prospectus in our paper as it appears above, with the hope that our friends will cut it out and attach the same to a sheet of paper, and procure as many subscribers as they can conveniently, and send their names to us at as early a day as possible.
